

How To Call BV for your Facetime or Skype Session

Please remember that you are responsible for calling BV at your appointment time.

Skype:

- Download skype from your app store or the website.
- Choose the free option (if specified).
- Create your username, if needed.
- Log in to skype with your username and password
- On your main screen in the left menu you will see “Add Contact”. Click that and type our username in the search box: BeVictoriousPrep@gmail.com
- When you search us, we will appear. Click to add us as a contact and skype will send us a contact request.
- When it is your appointment time, YOU will call BV by clicking the video button that appears in the top RIGHT of your screen. Make sure your video and sound capabilities are on PRIOR to your call.

Facetime

- Log into your Facetime account.
- Click on “Add Contact” (may appear as a + on your contacts tab).
- Enter “BV” as our name and BeVictoriousPrep@gmail.com as the email address.
- When it is your appointment time, you will double click on our email address and it will call us via email. We ask that you call our email vs. the phone so the call goes directly to the computer vs. phone.
